Rosh Chodesh Tammuz 5778

Some years ago our distinguished friend, Reb Tzuriel Kastel שליט"א, published a Sefer in Hebrew, in which he detailed the salient laws and customs for the Shaliach Tzibbur, the person who leads the Congregation in prayer. The manual was well thought out, orderly, clear and extremely useful. I was delighted to learn that he has translated this work into English, so that it is now available for a much wider audience, who will most certainly benefit from this information. Just as in the Hebrew version, the Halachos are all meticulously annotated, allowing the reader to know the authoritative source from which the law is drawn. I offer Reb Tzuriel my humble blessings that his scholarship should find favor in the eyes of Klal Yisroel, and that he should go from strength to ever greater strength in Torah and Avodah.

בכבוד והערצה,
